4. Public Forum

Part B

4.1 Families for Life Trust – Kerry Rutherford and Corey Watkinson

Kerry Rutherford and Corey Watkinson of the Families for Life Trust attended to inform the Board regarding issues with vandalism and anti-social activities on the Council-owned vacant section adjacent to the Merrington pre-school.

The Trust requested the Board's support for the Trust to take on a council lease of the site at 305 Breezes Road with a view to improving it by creating a sealed driveway, public car park and fencing to make it secure at night. The Trust is also looking at improving security at the school, possibly replacing the existing 1.4 metre fence with a 1.8 metre fence.

The Board decided to request staff to seek advice on the proposal from Families for Life Trust for the property at 305 Breezes Road and bring this back to the Board.

The Chairperson thanked Kerry Rutherford and Corey Watkinson for their presentation.

4.2 Pleasant Point Yacht Club – Alistair Burgess and Nigel Humphreys

Alistair Burgess and Nigel Humphreys of the Pleasant Point Yacht Club updated the Board on progress with the rebuild of the Yacht Club.

The Club purchased surplus post-earthquake temporary buildings from the University of Canterbury which will be available in July 2018 to place on the site subject to resource consent.

The Board commended them for their resourcefulness.

The Chairperson thanked Alistair Burgess and Nigel Humphreys for their presentation.

5. Deputations by Appointment
