4. Public Forum

Part B

4.1 Ōpāwaho Heathcote River Network

Sue Bye and Annabelle Hasselna, addressed the Board regarding the role and activities of the Ōpāwaho Heathcote River Network (OHRN). They provided an overview of the OHRN, its catchment, issues, and collaborative relationships. They informed the Board of a community workshop being held this weekend and World Rivers Day on 23 September.

After questions from members, the Chairperson thanked Sue Bye and Annabelle Hasselna for their presentation.

4.2 Deans Avenue – Apartments

Grigori Koulanov and Jared Lane addressed the Board regarding the new apartment development on the corner of Deans Avenue and Ayr Street. Concerns were raised in relation to a number of trees that are on the boundary of the development and the general upkeep of a number of streets around Christchurch. Concerns were also raised about the pathway on Deans Avenue between Ayr Street and Kilmarnock Street, that it is felt as unsafe due to the footpath being narrow.

After questions from members and on behalf of the Board, the Chairperson thanked Grigori and Jared for their presentation.

4.3 Denton Park

Marc Duff, on behalf of the Greater Hornby Residents' Association, addressed the Board regarding the lack of maintenance at Denton Park and the surrounding areas in Hornby.

After questions from members, the Chairperson thanked Marc Duff for his presentation.
