9. Process for an independent review of 3 Waters delivery (as per a s17A review)

Committee Comment

1. The staff recommendations were moved and seconded with a change to resolution 1 and 4. Following further discussion a procedural motion to let the item lie on the table and requested staff provide further advice as noted below.

Staff Recommendations

That the Finance and Performance Committee of the Whole recommend to Council:

1. That a section 17A review for the 3 Waters should commence in 2019.
2. To approve option 1 as the preferred way of delivering the review, which is an independent preparation lead and process governance with internal staff support and peer-review.
3. To identify how the 3 Waters section 17A review should be funded.

4. Note that the scope of the section 17A review has to include cost-effectiveness for the Canterbury region as per the legislation and this will enable the Council to be prepared to respond to potential outcomes of the central government 3 Waters work programme.

Committee Recommendation

Part A

That the Finance and Performance Committee of the Whole recommend to Council:

1. That a section 17A review for the 3 Waters should commence immediately.
2. To approve option 1 as the preferred way of delivering the review, which is an independent preparation lead and process governance with internal staff support and peer-review.
3. Note the 3 Waters section 17A review is unbudgeted and would therefore require reprioritisation within the 3 Waters budget.
4. Note that the scope of the section 17A review should include cost-effectiveness for the Canterbury region. This will enable the Council to be prepared to respond to potential outcomes of the central government 3 Waters work programme.

Councillor Manji/Councillor Keown

Carried/Lost

Committee Decided FPCO/2019/00026

That the Finance and Performance Committee of the Whole leave the report to lie on the table until the next Finance and Performance Committee of the Whole meeting (2 May 2019) and request staff to provide additional advice on, the advantages and disadvantages of an exemption, a Draft Terms of Reference of the review, a recommendation for funding the review and information on the Mayoral Forum.
