Booms back to collect Heathcote River trash

•From page 1
Said Ms Jenkins: "Of course the best solution would be if members of the public didn't discard rubbish into streets and gutters in the first place, as much of it ends up in the rivers."

Said Helene Mautner of the Opiwaho Heathcote River Network: "The rivers and estuary are real assets of the city, we need to look after them so we can enjoy them locally and showcase them to our visitors."

Another Mother of All Clean Up event is being planned for May 18 with the continuing support of City Care.

"Hopefully, with the booms back on the river, we will now see a significant reduction in rubbish downstream," says Ms Jenkins.

Spokesman for Avon-Otakaro Network Evan Smith said: "Floating rubbish presents a real navigation hazard to recreational users on the river and the rubbish along the banks is a real eyesore that diminishes the amenity value of riverside trails. The booms are placed in bends of the rivers in such a way that they don't impede navigation, a win-win for all."

The initiative has the support of the Christchurch West Melton Zone Committee, Environment Canterbury and Department of Conservation. Conservation service volunteers will also be involved from next year.

Downstream Effects Management Plan (DEMP)

Shirley Community Reserve

Papanui Youth Facility

Community Board Area Developments

Shirley Community Reserve – new fence

The main park entrance off Shirley Road sports new signage and has the gate as requested to keep children using the playground safe.

Ward School Principals Liaison Meeting

The Board held a productive liaison meeting with Board School Principals, facilitating it to better understand issues and initiatives related to schools in the Board area. An update was received on the construction of Marian College to achieve a green star rating reflecting its sustainability standard was especially well received.

Thank you!

Fresh Pool Party

A Fresh Pool Party was held at Te Pou Toetoe on Saturday 25 February 2023. After securing Tū Manawa Funding from Sport Canterbury, Youth and Cultural Development (YCD) have established their FRESH Pool Parties, which they regularly deliver at Te Pou Toetoe. Providing this trusted brand where participants can enjoy a youth specific free swim session, haircuts, pizzas and DJ, the events are engaging an increasing amount of rangatahi who might otherwise be disenfranchised. Staff are working with YCD to secure more funding to ensure the continuation of these regular events and to expand to other locations within the ward area and build on their successes.

Woolston Safety Hui

Woolston Safety Hui

In response to some of the safety concerns raised around crime and anti-social behaviour in Woolston, key stakeholders met on Friday 24 March at the Office of MP Tracey McLellan to discuss the issues, what has been done so far and ideas for further initiatives to help Woolston residents and businesses feel safer. Among the stakeholders were representatives from Kainga Ora, Ara Poutama Corrections, MSD housing, Community Patrol, Police and CCC Elected Members Councillor Yani Johanson, Board Chair Paul McMahon and Deputy Chair Jackie Simons.
