The agenda was dealt with in the following order.

Secretarial note: Due to the absence of a Chairperson or Deputy Chairperson, members present appointed Tim Lindley to chair the Information Session.

1. Apologies Ngā Whakapāha

Apologies for absence were received from Callum Ward, Keir Leslie, Howard Needham, Jackie Simons, Jillian Frater, Lyn Leslie, Paul McMahon, Sara Templeton and Tim Scandrett.

Apology for early departure from Yani Johanson.

2. Policy approach to commercial activities in coastal areas

Joint Community Board Information Session/Workshop Notes

Marie Gordon, Team Leader Parks Planning & Policy, Sally-Ann Marshall, Traffic Engineer and Tina Weston, Traffic Engineer presented to Boards the policy structure for commercial activities on reserves.

After questions from members, staff confirmed that Boards could consider the priority of commercial activities on reserves within their respective areas.

A member asked about the Public Places Bylaw and when it was next being reviewed. Staff noted that this was next to be reviewed between 2026 and 2028.

A member noted concerns around commercial activities and signage in public spaces.
